Tidings from the East

Brothers:

We have just begun the year and I am already wholeheartedly compelled to thank the Brethren for their support in every way. In the few months I have had the honor as Worshipful Master I have witnessed many Brethren, volunteer without hesitation; their time, money, knowledge, and skill to our beloved Lodge. It seems every month we are raising strong, intelligent, Masons who care about their Lodge and are more than willing to contribute they can for the growth and prosperity of the Lodge. Thank you one and all.

Brethren, we appreciate your dues, however, we'd rather see your face! We unfortunately miss many of you at our lodge meetings. Maybe it's been a few months, maybe even a few years, heck...decades? Your Lodge is growing, the fellowship is meaningful, and the members remarkable. We'd like to meet you on the level once again! As you will notice, our calendar is full of significant education, speakers, and work. The hive is most definitely buzzing with industry and we want as many members to benefit as possible. Please feel free to contact any officer for information or come to any of our scheduled events! We have much work ahead of us in the coming months. We are working with several local charities, participation is the MS Walk, along with helping with yard work for Volunteers of America. We have many activities and charitable events scheduled through May so be sure to come join us.

Looking forward to meeting you on the level
Sincerely & Fraternaly yours,

Christopher Wm Scott
